

SCCJR Bulletin: AUGUST 2019

People

Congratulations to SCCJR's Director, Sarah Armstrong (Glasgow) and Margaret Malloch (Stirling) who were both recently promoted to Professor. As you all know Sarah and Margaret have worked incredibly hard for the Centre since its inception and made a considerable contribution to their respective universities. We congratulate both our colleagues on this fantastic news and wish them every success in the next phase of their careers.

Events

21-23 OCTOBER: The Fifth International Conference on Law Enforcement and Public Health will take place in Edinburgh International Conference Centre this year. Michele Burman, Sarah Armstrong, John McGhee (Glasgow) and Maria Fotopolou (Stirling) are all presenting. To find out more about the event and the discussions that will be taking place, click here <https://leph2019edinburgh.com/>

Hate Crime Network

Rania Hamad, PhD candidate in Social Work at the University of Edinburgh, is setting up a Hate Crime Network for academics, researchers, research-minded practitioners, and policymakers in the field of hate crime and prejudice. The aim of the network is to bring people together to share research, developments, and innovations in this area, and they are looking to set up an event early next year focusing on 'researching hate', with guest speakers. Anyone interested in joining the network and/or sharing their research at a future event can contact Rania at Rania.Hamad@ed.ac.uk

Presentations & Meetings

Upcoming

Michele Burman and Oona Brooks-Hay (both Glasgow) will present 'Frontline Responses to Domestic Abuse in Scotland: assessing, managing and mitigating risk' at the European Conference on Domestic Violence in Oslo, 1-4 September.

Hannah Graham (Stirling) is presenting two papers at the European Society of Criminology conference in Ghent 18-21 Sept): one is on time, digital visual criminology and community punishment as part of a Roundtable on 'Doing Time: A Roundtable on Temporal Issues in Punishment' and the other paper is co-authored with Fergus McNeill (Glasgow) on 'Resettlement, Desistance and Reintegration in Europe.'

Michele Burman and Lisa Bradley (both Glasgow) will present 'Conflicting Definitions of Domestic Violence: The View from Scotland' as part of a panel session titled, 'Conflicting Definitions of Domestic Violence: Lessons from the Field in Austria, Finland, France and Scotland' at EuroCrim 2019 in Ghent.

Also attending EuroCrim 2019 is Louise Brangan (Stirling) who is presenting two papers at the European Society of Criminology conference in Ghent: One paper is on 'The Power to Imprison: Political Culture and Comparative Imprisonment' and the other paper is in a panel she is chairing on 'States of Exception: Penalty at the Periphery.'

Niall Hamilton-Smith (Stirling) is giving a SASO Edinburgh branch seminar speaking on 'Community experiences of organised crime' research at Edinburgh Sheriff Court on Tuesday 1st October. Free seminar, all welcome to attend.

<https://www.sastudyoffending.org.uk/attachments/article/163/SASOedinprogramme%2019-20.pdf>

Hannah Graham (Stirling) is giving a seminar on the Management of Offenders (Scotland) Bill/Act with the Legal Services Agency on Tuesday 1st October in Glasgow.

Past

Jessica Cleary (Stirling PhD researcher) presented on 'Thinking Bigger: Accounting for Gendered Barriers in the Desistance Process' at the British Society of Criminology Postgraduate Conference on 2nd July at the University of Lincoln.

Susan Batchelor (Glasgow) discussed champions of women in cinema at the Glasgow Art Club on 24 July which preceded the screening of Dance with a Stranger which tells the story of Ruth Ellis, the last woman to be hanged in Britain. Susan was joined by Mia Bays (Director-At-Large of Birds' Eye View and an Oscar-winning producer) and writer Hannah McGill.

In the Media

The Herald featured an article based on the Glass Walls project headed up by Emma Forbes (PhD researcher at Glasgow). The article, 'Glass Walls from Castlemilk's Daisy Project will Shed Light on Domestic Violence' (27 July) is available online.

Publications

Brodie, N, Batura, O., Hoog, G., Slot, B., Wanrooij van.,N. and Yates, D (2019) 'Illicit trade in cultural goods in Europe'. Available online <https://publications.europa.eu/en/publication-detail/-/publication/d79a105a-a6aa-11e9-9d01-01aa75ed71a1/language-en/format-PDF/source-102259506>

Brooks-Hay, O. (2019) Doing the 'right thing'?: Understanding why rape victim-survivors report to the police Feminist Criminology [published OnlineFirst]
<https://journals.sagepub.com/doi/full/10.1177/1557085119859079>

Weaver, B., Lightowler, C. and Moodie.K (2019) 'Inclusive Justice: Co-Producing Change. A Practical Guide to Service User Involvement in Community Justice. Available from Centre for Youth and Criminal Justice (CYCJ) website https://cycj.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2019/06/Weaver_Lightowler_Moodie-2019- Inclusive_justice_Final.pdf

Yates, D. and Tremain, C. (eds) (2019) The Market for Mesoamerica: Reflections on the Sale of Pre-Columbian Antiquities is now available through the University Press of Florida. <http://upf.com/book.asp?id=9780813056449>

Scottish Government Updates

The monthly Safer Communities and Justice Brief August 2019 is available now.

www.sccjr.ac.uk

Copyright © 2019 Scottish Centre for Crime and Justice Research, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

Scottish Centre for Crime & Justice Research
University of Glasgow
Ivy Lodge, 63 Gibson Street
Glasgow
G12 8LR